The Home Builders Association of Greater Cleveland wants everyone to know that home building is alive in Northeast Ohio.

To prove its point, the association recently led a guided tour of six housing projects under construction across the region. The projects range from the Avenue District in downtown Cleveland to Battery Park on Cleveland's West Side.

The tour also includes two redevelopment projects, Rockport Square in Lakewood and Shoreland Crossings in Willowick, as well as Summerwood, a new housing subdivision in Concord Township.

The tour culminates with a visit to the site of this fall's Homearama, where seven builders are putting up luxurious $1 million-plus homes on speculation in Bainbridge Township.
